Dear Friend,

The South Georgia Literacy Festival, sponsored by Snake Nation Press, will take place on September 8-9, 2017, at the Rainwater Center here in Valdosta. This event will host fifty (50) well-known writers, and at least 1,000 or more visitors. Local groups of pre-school children will be attending to take part in reading activities designed just for them.

Our goal is to raise at least $10,000 to promote reading and writing instructions for adults and young people who do not have those skills or who have had problems in the past writing resumes, applying for jobs, and just reading and understanding simple directions. 4.6% of the population in Lowndes County never went to high school and 11.5% never completed high school or the GED; which means a large number of people are lacking basic reading and writing skills. A literate populace, able to learn new job skills, brings in new business, and adds to everyone's level of prosperity. Private rooms for instruction, computer programs, classes, books, and materials are sorely needed. A portion of the proceeds will go to the Southside Library in Valdosta.

Snake Nation Press is currently looking for sponsors who will help us reach this goal. We count on you to donate whatever is in your budget for this kind of project.

As a thank-you for your generosity of at least $500, your company will have a table at the Literacy Festival for your banner, logo, and materials. Also, your logo with name and address will be on all correspondence and activities throughout the year. Other levels of support are available; see the attached donation form. All sponsorships and donations are tax-deductible.

We hope that we can count on you to help us make this event the best one yet! Please include your donation in the self-addressed envelope included in this letter or donate online at www.snakenationpress.org.

Thank you in advance for your contribution. We hope to see you at the Literacy Festival!

With warmest regards,

Roberta George
